Germany

Sato Shihan and Andreas Sensei from Canada visited Germany recently to conduct workshops.

Canada

The British Columbia Shito Ryu Seiko Kai Association held a Brown/Black belt workshop on Vancouver Island on April 19 and 20, 2009. The workshop was conducted by Sato sensei and senior members of the organization. Such workshops are held two times per year, to ensure that we maintain the competence of the instructor and that the instructions are uniform across the province.

On the weekend of April 25 and 26 the association organized a special weekend for higher level teens, the future leaders of the association. Attached are a few pictures. More information and pictures will be included in the next edition.

Australia

The Australian Hombu sent an all woman's team to attend the AKF Australian Open in Melbourne. A great weekend was had by all who attended, with Melanie Drew gaining Bronze in the 16-17 years Kumite.

This was only Melanie's 2nd National tournament after much success at a local level.
