Volume 7 Issue 3 March 2010

Argentina

Delirio Sotello, 7th dan. From Buenos Aires took part in the WUKO master and senior world championship in Guadalajara in Mexico in November 19-22, 2009. He became world champion in kata and got a silver medal in kumite.

At age 54 he was also named world referee for the Americas. A great source of pride for Seiko Kai Argentina and an example for all of us to follow.

India

A team consisting of 9 players and 2 officials under the banner of Indian Olympic Association successfully participated in 11th South Asian Games, Dhaka, Bangladesh and bagged 3 Silver and 4 Bronze Medals. General Secretary of AIKF Bharat Sharma lead the team as Manager and Treasurer Althaf Alam as the Team Coach.

One competitor from Seiko-Kai India Sewabrat Dewari won a Bronze Medal in Men's - 61 Kg. Kumite

Congratulations to Bharat Sharma Sensei and Sewabrat Dewari.

Sri Lanka

Vimukthi, a student of Sensei Ruwan Satharasinghe won a bronze medal at the South Asian Games held last month in Dhaka, Bangladesh.

Canada

Roy Tippenhauer, a student of Sato sensei and fifth degree black belt from British Columbia, is interested in visiting your country and teaching karate. Roy sensei has an impressive track record and can teach you and your students many things about competition training.

He has specialized in Sports Karate development and in coaching and athlete development. His own past records includes: heavy weight provincial kumite champion, Canadian national champion, national silver medalist in kobudo, and 7 times Sato Cup grand champion. His coaching record is equally impressive: he has coached 5 athletes to 10 national titles in kata and kumite and two athletes to top 10 finishes in the Pan-American Games and also 1 of his students made it to a top 5 finish in World Championships.

He is now vice-president of Karate Canada and in charge of LATD (Long Term Athlete Development Program) and the NCCP (National Coaching Certificate Program) in Canada. He can provide you with a wealth of information about coaching and teaching.

Roy sensei does not require a workshop fee, but you have to provide meals and accommodation and cover the airfare. If you are not able to cover the complete airfare talk to him about it.

You can reach Roy sensei at <mailto:roytip@hotmail.com>. Please copy any emails to Wim Tewinkel

Good result in 9. MSV – Cup in Hamburg

The „Meiendorfer Sport Verein“ celebrated their 9th tournament on the 31.01.2010 in which six “Karatekas” from SV – Siek participated.

All of the participants were really successful with their performances in this tournament and the spectators were very much excited, when they saw “Shitoryu Katas” such as Matsumura Rohai, Matsukaze, Pachu, Gojushio, Nipaipo, Matsumura Bassai and Gekisai Dai Ichi.

Moreover the spectators were also fascinated when two of our members performed six self-defence techniques.

Sensei George Patnelli was working very hard to develop Shitoryu in Schleswig-Holstein district as a Representative under the Japan Karate-Do Shitoryu Seiko Kai Dhammika Branch in Germany. As a result of this success we will wish him to have more happy future with lots of success.
